CREW DC PRESENTS “WOMEN INVESTING IN REAL ESTATE: BRIDGING THE GAP” ON SEPT. 13

Washington, D.C. – August 16, 2017 – Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) DC invites the public to jump start the learning curve and join our conversation on how to invest in commercial real estate at a program on Wednesday, September 13. Our thought-provoking panel will discuss the “nuts and bolts” of real estate investing and new trends such as crowdsourcing. Arm yourself with knowledge and get inspired. For many women in commercial real estate and investment fields, the path to financial freedom is truly accessible and our speakers, each highly successful in their respective sectors, will share insights and wisdom in CREW DC’s welcoming program.

Moderator: Betsy Karmin, Partner, Morris, Manning & Martin LLP

Panelists:

- Jill Homan, Principal, Javelin 19 Investments
- Latasha Edwards, Senior Vice President, RSE Capital Partners (an affiliate of Fundrise)
- Scott Homa, Senior Vice President & Director of U.S. Office Research, JLL

This lunch program is open to members and non-members and will be held on Wednesday, September 13, 2017 from 11:30 am to 1:30 pm at The W Hotel at 515 15th Street, NW, Washington, DC. General registration is available through the CREW DC website at www.crewdc.org.

Reporters are invited to attend this luncheon meeting free of charge, space permitting, but must contact Karen Widmayer at 301-661-1448 or e-mail karenwidmayerpr@gmail.com to register prior to the event.
